

National Honor Society Cameron Chapter Protocol

Based on the 16th Edition of the NHS Handbook (2005)

HISTORY: The National Honor Society was founded in 1919 at the annual convention of the newly formed National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP). For more than 80 years, the National Honor Society has been the leading organization for recognizing and involving outstanding students in secondary schools across the nation. Thus, the National Honor Society was regarded from its inception as a concrete way to promote high academic standards, as a means of ensuring the continuation of democracy and as an instrument for the betterment of the individual and the school.

The Society has flourished, with more than 15,000 chapters which have been chartered in every state and in schools in many territories and countries overseas. The Cameron High School National Honor Society Chapter was established in 1970. Chapter membership not only recognizes our students for their accomplishments, but also challenges them to develop further through active involvement in school activities and community service. The goal of NHS is to make a positive difference in the lives of individuals and in the spirit of the community and of the school. The principals and advisers in NASSP schools recognize outstanding student achievement through membership and encourage and support each local chapter's commitment to service.

All local chapters of the National Honor Society are charged with the responsibility of both satisfying a social need and being devoted to the purposes of worth to the individual and of profit to the school. Each chapter, although required to adopt the national constitution, is encouraged to provide for local needs through bylaws designed in conformance with the national constitution. Chapters have always been urged to exercise initiative, resourcefulness, and ingenuity in promoting Society standards. The original committee set up the National Honor Society to permit a high degree of freedom for local chapters; therefore, variety characterizes the activities of the many chapters.

Members of the Cameron Chapter of the National Honor Society, having met predetermined standards of character, leadership, scholarship, and service and having pledged to uphold and serve as a model of these fundamental virtues, acknowledge their choice to fulfill the obligations of membership and to familiarize themselves with and adhere to the bylaws and protocol of the chapter, including expectations for participation, the maintaining of the standards that were used for selection, and acting as role models both on and off campus. Members of the Cameron Chapter of the National Honor Society further acknowledge disciplinary measures or dismissal as expected outcomes if a member falls below the standards used for selection to membership.

Chapter Activities and Leadership Roles

Membership in the Cameron Chapter of the National Honor Society is more than an honor. It incurs a responsibility and an obligation to continue to demonstrate the outstanding qualities that resulted in your selection. Your decision to become a member carries a responsibility to the chapter. If our chapter of the National Honor Society is to be effective and meaningful, each member must not only actively promote the cardinal traits of the Society, he/she must also become proactive in meeting the needs of the community and of the school. All members will provide service through participation in all of our chapter meetings and projects. A representative list of chapter activities follows. Each year the membership has the responsibility for adapting service activities to reflect the talents, interests, and needs of both the membership and the communities it serves.

If a potential candidate is ineligible for induction because of the semester ruling (for example, students of military parents or others required to move with parents or guardians who have transferred), the present school principal may seek a recommendation from the previous school principal pursuant to the candidate's selection. On the basis of the recommendation of the previous principal, the Faculty Council may elect to waive the semester regulation.)

The selection procedure shall be published in an official school publication and shall be made available in a timely fashion to all Cameron High School students and parents upon request. The selection procedure for the Cameron High School Chapter of the National Honor Society shall be as follows:

Cameron High School Chapter of the National Honor Society Candidate Selection Procedure

- The selection of candidates for induction shall be held once a year during the second semester of the school year (Alternative or additional selection periods may be added.)
- Students' academic records shall be reviewed to determine scholastic eligibility.
- Juniors and seniors who are deemed to be scholastically eligible at the end of the first semester's grading period shall be notified and asked to submit a completed Cameron National Honor Society Application Packet. This application will include the candidate's application, essay, and a non-faculty letter of recommendation which indicates the candidate's commitment to leadership, service, and character.
- Once a candidate has submitted a completed Cameron National Honor Society Application Packet to the chapter adviser, the faculty will be asked to evaluate all candidates who are requesting consideration for admission. The official evaluation form, which will be provided to each faculty member by the chapter advisor, will request candid, professionally sound input concerning each candidate's development in the cardinal traits of the Society: scholarship, character, service, and leadership. All evaluations will be signed and will be confidential. These documents will be shredded by the adviser after use by the faculty council in the selection procedure.
- Prior to the final selection of candidates for membership to this chapter, the faculty council shall review the applications, essays, letters of recommendation, and faculty evaluations. All candidates who are selected for admission will be offered the opportunity for induction. There will be no minimum or maximum number of selected candidates.
- All applicants for selection will be notified in writing by the adviser of the decision of the faculty council concerning admission to the chapter.
- Selected candidates will become members when inducted at a special ceremony.

Section 5. The National Council and NASSP shall not review the judgment of the Faculty Council regarding selection of individual members to local chapters.

ARTICLE IV DISCIPLINE/DISMISSAL

Section 1. The Faculty Council, in compliance with the rules and regulations of NHS, shall determine the procedure for dismissal. A written description of the dismissal procedure shall be available to interested parties.

Section 2. Members should understand fully that they are subject to dismissal if they do not maintain the standards of scholarship, leadership, service, or character that were used as a basis for their selection. Members will be allowed limited warnings during their membership, and in the case of a flagrant violation of school rules, behavioral expectations, or the law, neither a verbal nor a written warning will be required prior to consideration for dismissal. The Faculty Council shall determine when an individual has exceeded a reasonable number of warnings.

Section 2a. A member of the Cameron chapter of the National Honor Society is expected to maintain exemplary character, an active role in service, and positive leadership in both school and community. Any member who falls below any one of the chapter's expectations for superlative leadership, service, or character may be dismissed from the Cameron High School chapter of the National Honor Society.

Section 2b. A member of the Cameron chapter of the National Honor Society is expected to maintain his/her academic standing. A member should understand fully that he/she is subject to dismissal if he/she does not maintain the cumulative grade point average (3.5) that was used as a basis for selection. If a member's cumulative grade point average falls below the standard in effect when he/she was selected, he/she will be given a written warning and a time period for improvement. If the academic expectations are not met by the end of the warning period, the student will be subject to further disciplinary action by the Faculty Council which could include dismissal from the chapter.

Section 3. Violation of school regulations and/or the school conduct code can result in disciplinary action by the Faculty Council which could include dismissal of a member from the chapter. These violations include, but are not limited to, stealing, destruction of property, cheating, truancy, athletic code violations, the use of profanity, failure to comply, unexcused absence, excessive tardiness, etc. When the athletic director, school counselor, or principal notifies the adviser of a violation of school regulations, the member will receive a written warning notification of a failure by the member to meet chapter obligations. Since it is helpful to both the student and the adviser to discuss any failures of a member to fulfill chapter obligations, a conference can be scheduled at the member's request as a follow-up to a notification letter. This request by the member for an explanatory conference should be presented in writing with a copy provided both to the adviser and to the principal. Upon receipt of such a request, a formal conference will be scheduled to discuss any concerns with the member.

Section 4. All violations of the law will be considered to be flagrant violations of the Society's honor code and will be cause for immediate dismissal consideration of the member by the Faculty Council. A violation of the law in which the court system is involved will result in disciplinary action by the Faculty Council which is likely to include dismissal of a member from the chapter. These violations include misdemeanors and felonies for, but are not limited to, theft, vandalism/destruction of property, possession, selling, or being under the influence of drugs or alcohol.

Section 5. A member will never be dismissed automatically for failing to maintain standards, not meeting member obligations, or even being found guilty of violating school rules, behavioral expectations, or the law. The dismissal procedure for the Cameron High School Chapter of the National Honor Society shall be as follows:

Cameron High School Chapter of the National Honor Society Dismissal Procedure

- In all cases of impending dismissal, the member will receive written notification from the chapter adviser of the action being contemplated. The notification will indicate the reason for possible dismissal and the date, time, and place of the disciplinary review hearing.
- In all cases of impending dismissal, the member and adviser will discuss the written notification in an informal conference, which can be held either prior to or following the receipt of the notification. If either party wishes for a more formal conference to take place to discuss the purpose or procedures of the impending hearing, a conference can be scheduled as a follow-up to the notification letter. This request for an explanatory conference should be presented in writing with a copy provided to the principal. Upon receipt of such a request, a formal conference will be scheduled to discuss any concerns.
- A disciplinary review hearing is identified in the NHS constitution as a right of membership and is guaranteed as due process as identified by the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. In all cases of impending dismissal, the member will be offered the opportunity to respond to the charge against him/her at a hearing before the Faculty Council prior to the vote on dismissal. The member will be given the opportunity to present his/her defense either in person or in writing. A parent or guardian may be present with the member; however, it should be noted that the primary purpose and focus of the hearing is to allow the member to present his or her case before any action is taken.
- Following the disciplinary review hearing, the Faculty Council will vote on whether to dismiss. A majority vote of the Faculty Council is needed to dismiss any member. If a member is dismissed, written notice of the decision will be stated in a letter sent to the member, his or her parent(s) or guardian(s), and the principal.
- Dismissed members must surrender any membership insignia, the NHS emblem, and membership card to the chapter adviser. If the member is unwilling to do this, the matter will be treated as a school disciplinary matter.

Section 6. The Faculty Council's decision to dismiss a member may be appealed. An appeal must be in writing and must state the reason or basis on which a reversal of the Council's decision is sought. Appeals of dismissal will initially be considered by the school principal. If the building principal upholds the Council's decision and the student and/or parents are not satisfied with the findings of the first appeal, a subsequent appeal can be taken to the District Administrator. The dismissed member must present this second appeal in writing, stating the reason or basis on which a reversal of the principal's decision is sought, within one week of receiving written notification of the outcome of the first appeal. Should the findings of the second appeal be unsatisfactory to the grievant, the dismissed member can seek a final reversal of the decision to dismiss by presenting an appeal to the Board of Education. Appeals to the BOE should follow the same procedure as the earlier appeals.

Section 7. Neither the National Council nor the national office has the authority to hear appeals in cases of dismissal.

Section 8. When a student is dismissed or resigns, he/she is no longer a member and may never again be considered for membership in the National Honor Society.

Section 9. In lieu of dismissal, the Faculty Council may impose disciplinary sanctions upon a member as deemed appropriate.

Section 9a. The Faculty Council can elect to discipline a member by placing him/her on warning (sometimes referred to as "suspension" or "probation"), during which time he/she is considered not in good standing with the chapter, although technically still retaining membership. Such warning periods are generally for a specific amount of time after which regular membership is restored. National Bylaws (Article XV, Section 3) dictate that only members who are in good standing will be allowed to wear the Society's emblem/insignia.

Section 9b. Other disciplinary measures are acceptable disciplinary alternatives for minor offenses. For example, the Faculty Council may suspend certain chapter privileges, remove a member from chapter office, request that the student perform additional school or community service activities, or have the student receive special counseling.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 1. The officers of the chapter shall be president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. A historian may be elected at the discretion of the membership.

Section 2. Student officers shall be elected at the last meeting of each school year. All returning members are eligible to run for a position as an officer.

Section 3. A majority vote shall be necessary to elect any officer of this chapter. If the first vote does not yield a majority, a second vote shall be taken of the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes.

Section 4. New officers shall be installed at a special ceremony.

ARTICLE VI EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

All actions and recommendations of the executive committee shall be subject to the review of the chapter membership.

Meetings of this chapter shall be announced by a member of the executive committee, usually the chapter's vice-president, or by the advisor when the need arises.

Section 3. Regular meeting attendance shall be expected of all members of the Cameron Chapter of the National Honor Society.

Section 4. The chapter president or other designated student leader, with the approval of the executive committee, may call special meetings.

Section 4. Each member shall have the responsibility for choosing and participating in a service project that reflects his or her particular talents and interests and reporting on that project in writing to the adviser.
